Out from the depth of darkness gazing upward, Sore have I long'd a love like hers to gain; A beating heart was left me, for my torment, That I might still a wake to all my pain! This quenchless flame I feel within me burn - ing, Can I, un happy one, love dare to call it? Ah no! It is but longing for re-lease,
That I thro' such an angel might have peace, that I thro' such an angel might have peace!

A store of rarest treasures shalt thou see, pearls rich and cost ly, stones beyond com pare. Be hold. and so con vince thyself how great is their val - ue. All these for a friend-ly roof I give thee.

Thee I be - seech, Kind angel sent from heav - en, Thou who for me didst

Thou who for me didst win un-look'd for grace; Was there a fruit - less hope to mock me giv-en, When thou didst show me how to find re - lease?

If vain desires and earthly longing Have turn'd my heart from thee a way;

The sin-ful hopes within me thronging, Be - fore thy blessed feet I lay; I'll wrestle with the love I cherish'd, Until in death its flame hath perished.
